

AAC AI+QA Institute Membership Application Form

For admission to membership in the AAC AI+QA Institute

Important note

This form is used to apply for membership in the AAC AI+QA Institute. Submission of this form does not guarantee admission to membership and does not create validation, accreditation, certification, approval, endorsement, recognition, or Candidate status. Applicants should complete all applicable sections and provide accurate information.

Section A. Applicant Information

Legal name of organization or individual

Trading name or public name, if different

Website

Country or jurisdiction

Legal status or professional status

Primary contact person

Position / title

Email

Telephone / messaging contact

Postal address

Section B. Applicant Category

Please select the category that best describes the applicant.

University / higher education institution.

College / school / training provider.

EdTech company.

AI solution provider.

Learning management system or digital learning platform.

Recruitment, admissions, assessment, or student support platform.

Education agency or recruitment organization.

Quality assurance, accreditation, consulting, or advisory organization.

Individual professional.

Other: Please specify

Section C. Institutional or Professional Profile

Brief description of the organization or professional activity

Main services, programs, products, or areas of work

Section C. Institutional or Professional Profile - Continued

Main countries or markets served

Approximate number of students, users, clients, or partner institutions, where relevant

Existing accreditations, licenses, recognitions, certifications, or memberships, where relevant

Existing use of AI or AI-enabled systems, if applicable

Section D. Membership Purpose

Why does the applicant wish to join the AAC AI+QA Institute?

What AI, quality assurance, governance, or higher education issues are most relevant to the applicant?

What outcomes does the applicant expect from membership?

Does the applicant wish to participate in public member listing?

Yes

No

Comments or conditions, if any

Section E. Possible Future Pathway Interest

Important note

This section is for orientation only. Indicating interest does not create eligibility or approval for any formal pathway.

Membership only for now.

University Readiness Review.

Candidate for AAC AI-Native University Accreditation.

AAC AI-Native University Accreditation.

AI+QA Validation Review for a non-university organization, solution, or service.

Professional participation or expert community involvement.

Not sure and seeking expert feedback first.

Additional comments on pathway interest

Section F. Declarations

The applicant confirms that the information provided is accurate to the best of its knowledge.

The applicant understands that membership is not validation, accreditation, certification, endorsement, approval, recognition, or Candidate status.

The applicant agrees to use only approved public wording and logo use rules.

The applicant agrees to inform AAC of material changes relevant to membership eligibility, public claims, legal status, ownership, or reputational risk.

The applicant agrees that AAC may decline, defer, suspend, or terminate membership in accordance with applicable policies.

Section G. Signature

Authorized representative name

Title / role

Signature

Date

Important note

By signing this form, the applicant confirms that the information provided is accurate and that it understands the membership boundaries stated in this application form.

For AAC Internal Use Only

Completeness check

Member category assigned

Risk or public claim concerns

Decision: Approved / Deferred / Declined

Approver name and date

Invoice / payment status

Certificate issued

Public listing status

Pathway interest recorded